

ABOUT THE RALLY

Utah Associated Municipal Power Systems (UAMPS) member utilities sponsor local teens to attend the Idaho Consumer-Owned Utilities Association (ICUA) Rally at the College of Idaho each summer to inspire, teach, and help develop leadership qualities.

The ICUA Youth Rally is a week-long leadership camp and scholarship program for local teens from all over the Intermountain West to learn about consumer-owned utilities, teamwork, and leadership. There are fun camp activities throughout the week, along with a trip to the Idaho Capitol Building and the Idaho Waterpark!

ABOUT THE SCHOLARSHIPS

Each teen who is accepted to represent UAMPS at the Rally will be awarded a $500 scholarship.

The teens are also evaluated throughout the week on class engagement, participation, teamwork, leadership, and overcoming obstacles. At the end of the week, evaluated scores are used to award additional scholarship money.

WHO ATTENDS THE RALLY?

Teens who attend the Youth Rally represent over 40 rural communities from Idaho, Alaska, Oregon, Wyoming, Montana, Washington, Nevada, Utah and more! UAMPS is proud to sponsor four (4) teens from their member communities each year. (See back for more details)

SCHEDULE INCLUDES

MOTIVATIONAL SPEAKERS

Of all types!

ACTIVITIES

Such as volleyball, outdoor games, dances, bowling, a day at the waterpark, a trip to the Idaho Capitol, team building activities and so much more!

LEARNING

Teens will learn the basics about electricity, energy generation, consumer-owned utilities, U.S. Government, and jobs in the power industry!

IT MIGHT SOUND CHEESY, BUT...

The Rally is great at bringing teens out of their shells and helping them make new friends!

THE BEST CHOICE FOR SUMMER CAMP!

All teens receive a certificate for attending the Rally. The leadership camp looks great on college applications!
